Tampa Bay Business Journal Press Release

Relations PR & Marketing Celebrates its Third Birthday with Multiple Account Wins

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 24 /PRNewswire/ -- Relations PR & Marketing is celebrating its three-year anniversary this month and has already witnessed exceptional expansion and continued growth across all practices. The firm recently announced the addition of several new and diverse brands to its portfolio.

Athletes in Action Super Bowl Breakfast: The day before Super Bowl XLIII fans will join sports legends in Tampa to hear from distinguished NFL athletes and coaches and to see the awarding of the prestigious Bart Starr Award at this NFL sanctioned event. Confirmed speakers include Indianapolis Colts Head Coach Tony Dungy, NFL Hall of Famers Bart Starr and Anthony Munoz, Tampa Bay Buccaneer Derrick Brooks and former San Francisco 49er Brent Jones as emcee.

HR for Non-HR People: HR for Non-HR People is a Tampa Bay area company that offers human resources seminars for employees, often from an administrative or financial background who find themselves thrust into an HR role.

A Benefit To You: A Benefit To You is a group of professional geriatric care managers who specialize in assisting elderly people and their families through the minefield of complexities associated with elder care. They plan and implement long-term care arrangements that allow for the greatest degree of dignity, independence, comfort and safety.

Advanced Ultrasound Services: A pioneer in 4-d ultrasound services, Advanced Ultrasound Services specializes in administering state-of-the-art, three and four-dimensional ultrasounds for pregnancy and ovarian cancer screenings.

"We are very pleased with the growth that came in 2008 and look forward to all the opportunities that have presented themselves for 2009," said Robin Adkins Vosler, CEO of Relations PR & Marketing. "In today's struggling economy, businesses are realizing that they need to stand out from their competition now more than ever to attract consumers' attention and hard-earned dollars."
